

We are whole heartedly against changing the Indiana "Do Not Call List" The Lieing tacktics of most telemarketers are outrageous. The peace that our home has had since our number has been on the list has been WONDERFUL! My husband (who has a hard time saying no) has now started answering the phone again! Please do not change the law.